

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

BUREAU OF INSURANCE INFORMATION,

NOS. 113 AND 115 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Covington's Bureau of Insurance Information proposes to furnish to subscribers :

- (1) Information as to the financial standing of insurance companies (stock and mutual) and Lloyds associations.
- (2) Advice as to forms of fire, life, marine, accident, employer's liability and boiler insurance policies.
- (3) Suggestions in a graphic form as to how to avoid fires and reduce insurance rates.
- (4) Information as to what to do after a fire or accident and how to adjust a loss.

The number of insurance (stock and mutual) companies and Lloyds associations is so large that a daily examination is required to keep one informed as to their financial responsibility ; and the terms and conditions of insurance policies are so intricate that none but an expert can properly interpret them.

Suggestions will be forwarded to all subscribers calling their attention to certain features of insurance policies in order that they may know whether or not their policies are properly written. If desired, explicit instructions will be given.

C. D. CRANE'S Insurance Expiration Registers,

(COPYRIGHTS SECURED.)

THE SPECTATOR COMPANY has secured the exclusive right to make and sell this valuable work. These Registers have now been in use many years and have uniformly given satisfaction. They are recommended, because:

1. By them no expiration can possibly be overlooked. 2. They afford the utmost facility in keeping posted as to the daily or successive expirations. 3. "Block" Insurance may be easily recorded and determined. 4. They are alphabetically arranged by names of insured, so that any particular policy of any individual among many thousands can be found almost in a single moment. 5. Less writing, labor and time are necessary in keeping the record. 6. They are calculated for a continuous business of thirteen years. 7. Policies are recorded consecutively until the book is full. 8. They are adapted to all kinds of insurance, whether fire, life, accident or marine. 9. They are simple in arrangement, yet thorough and practical. 10. The paper, ruling, printing and binding are first-class. 11. There being such a variety of sizes any Agency or Insurance Company can be supplied with a Register of a capacity suited to its necessities.

The Double Index Register consists of a Time Index in the front and an Initial Index for names of insured for the body of the book. The Triple Index Register differs from the Double Index Register only in having an extra initial index to every letter of the alphabet, including Mc., for the given names of insured, thus giving 702 divisions of the alphabet and making, with the Time Index, three indexes, and yet not requiring a word of extra writing. The facility with which any name in many thousands may be found is remarkable and can only be appreciated by the daily use of the Register.

THE Prudential Insurance Co. OF AMERICA

WAS the pioneer in industrial insurance on this side of the water. That it set in operation forces of no mean power, may be inferred from the fact that within fourteen years of its organization, industrial insurance has attained such proportions that the two leading companies follow immediately after the three largest ordinary life insurance companies in the United States, in amount of business written. That the system introduced in 1876 met a need of the people is shown from the fact that there are, to-day, much more than 7,000,000 industrial policies in force in this country. Of these, the PRUDENTIAL issued, in 1893, over 1,000,000.

The plan of the PRUDENTIAL is, precisely similar to that of ordinary life insurance companies, based upon correct principles. It is founded upon a system which has been demonstrated by science and proved by the experience of nearly two centuries to be the only satisfactory method of furnishing indemnity for death. It differs from ordinary companies only in matters of detail, in its adaptation to the wants of its patrons. Its principal peculiarities are: That, while the ordinary companies do not issue a policy for less than a thousand dollars, except in rare cases, the PRUDENTIAL will issue one for ten dollars. Most companies require the premium to be paid at infrequent intervals, and in comparatively large sums, while the PRUDENTIAL receives them weekly, each of small amount, thus relieving its policy from becoming a burden. The object of an ordinary policy is to provide an estate, that of the PRUDENTIAL is to provide a burial fund to the family of the laboring man at a time when a little ready money is most needed and most appreciated. Ordinary life insurance discriminates against women—either they do not receive them or charge a higher premium for such insurance. The PRUDENTIAL insures women in its industrial branch upon the same basis as it takes male risks. No ordinary company will insure children. The PRUDENTIAL has over a quarter of a million policies in force upon children's lives.

The extent to which the PRUDENTIAL has won the confidence of the people is shown from the fact that it has insurance in force aggregating two hundred and fifty millions of dollars. Its policyholders, if gathered together into a single community, would form a city larger, as regards population, than any city in the country, while the male citizens of such a town would exceed in number the muster roll of the majority of the standing armies of the world. The amount of money for which the PRUDENTIAL is liable, under its existing contracts, is nearly equal to the total value of the gold and silver produced in Idaho and Colorado since the first discovery of the precious metals in those districts. It exceeds the value of the annual export from the United States of gold and silver bullion, by many millions of dollars, and would suffice to pay the funded debt of the States of Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia. It would purchase the entire cotton manufacturing interests of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, and the lumber men of Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin would dispose of the entire product of their industry for that sum.

The death claims paid by the PRUDENTIAL to the present time have included in their benefits not less than 800,000 persons, a number exceeded by the population of but five or six of the principal cities of the country; while the sum of fifteen million dollars, the amount of death claims paid, is larger than the sum expended in twelve years by any one of those cities for the relief of the indigent distributed within their borders.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

The publishers take great pleasure in presenting to the insurance fraternity the twenty-second annual issue of THE INSURANCE YEAR BOOK. It is with much pride that we point to the improvements made in this publication from year to year. The yearly increase in the material that it seems necessary to include in such a cyclopedia of insurance information has added to the volume year by year until its division into two parts three years ago became a matter of necessity. One of these parts is devoted to FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE and the other to LIFE AND MISCELLANEOUS INSURANCE; each part is complete in itself, and each contains a mass of valuable matter that can be found in no other publication. THE INSURANCE YEAR BOOK has achieved a reputation for fullness of detail and accuracy of compilation that have made it standard authority upon all matters pertaining to the business of insurance.

In addition to the regular statistics of American stock and mutual and foreign companies doing business in this country, which are given in comparative form for five years, there are many other statistical exhibits that are invaluable to the officers, stockholders and agents of insurance companies. All statistical matter is compiled from the latest official data, the New York and Massachusetts Insurance Departments' reports being the principal authority relied upon for the companies doing business in those States; for other companies we have obtained their statistics from the official reports of other States wherein they do business, or other official sources.

As a full and complete index will be found in each part of THE YEAR BOOK, it is not necessary in this place to indicate the special features of this volume. Most careful effort has been made to attain correctness in every detail, and some statistics have been added this year not included in previous volumes.

We beg to acknowledge our obligation to all who have so kindly rendered us assistance in obtaining the data for the work. Our thanks are especially due to the heads of the Insurance Departments of the various States for their courtesy and promptness in furnishing us with information.

Principles and Practice of Life Insurance.

SIXTH EDITION.—REVISED, ENLARGED AND IMPROVED.

A Treatise on the Principles and Practice of Life Insurance.—With valuable Tables for reference. A complete Arithmetical explanation of the computations involved in the science of Life Contingencies.

By NATHAN WILLEY.

This edition contains entirely new descriptive text from that found in the former edition, and for the first time since the work was originally published it has been carefully rewritten and recompiled, and entirely reset in new type.

New Tables of Premiums and Annuities have been developed by arithmetical processes.

The Interest Tables have been enlarged and now include 2, 2½, 3 and 3½ per cent valuations, and all the Tables have been extended from 50 to 100 years.

There are also included among the new Tables Values based upon the American Experience Table with interest at 4 per cent; also Values upon the same table with interest at 3½ and at 3 per cent.

These Values have been extended so as to include all the usual forms of Life and Endowment Policies. The Valuation Tables upon the Actuaries Table of Mortality 4 per cent interest, have been enlarged both in respect to Reserves and Cost of Insurance; also the Premiums for Term Insurance, Actuaries 4 per cent, have been extended so as to give from 1 to 15 years inclusive, and they are also given for the 20th and 25th years.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE TO SIXTH EDITION.

After the Fifth Edition of "The Principles and Practice of Life Insurance" was issued, some errors were discovered in the text, notably in "Life Insurance Formulæ," pages 36 to 51. The publishers, therefore, determined to have the work carefully revised, every table compared with the original tables whence they were derived by Mr. Willey and subsequent compilers, and to this end secured the co-operation of Mr. John Tatlock, Jr., A. M., Member Actuarial Society of America and Assistant Actuary of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. Regarding the work done by him, Mr. Tatlock says:

"I have had all the tables based on the American Table of Mortality, and published in the Fifth Edition of 'The Principles and Practice of Life Insurance,' carefully compared with the manuscript tables belonging to the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. I have also had the Interest Tables, published in the above-mentioned edition, carefully compared with Oakes' Interest Tables, and all corrections noted. The Logarithms of V have been independently computed anew."

All values on the Actuaries or Combined Experience Table, with interest at 4 per cent, were recently computed by the Insurance Departments of New York and Massachusetts, and are now for the first time given to the public, in Principles and Practice of Life Insurance.

The work is now issued in three forms, adapted to the various uses of purchasers. An edition designated as the ACTUARIES EDITION, printed on heavy paper, with wide margin for notations, and substantially and elegantly bound, is the only edition containing the 4, 3½ and 3 per cent American Experience Valuation Tables. In other respects the pocket and cloth editions are, so far as contents are concerned, identical with the Actuaries edition.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS.

SYNOPSIS OF THE STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS OF THE VARIOUS STATES AND TERRITORIES.

A brief synopsis of the statutory requirements of each of the several States and Territories relating to Fire Insurance is presented in the following pages. These have been corrected to April 1, but as some of the State Legislatures were in session at the time this portion of THE YEAR BOOK was put to press, any laws subsequently adopted affecting these requirements will be noted in an addenda. It has been our aim in preparing these synopses of the statutes to secure uniformity for all the States and to give the essential requirements in as brief a space as possible consistent with the statement of the facts. The synopsis for each State was sent to the supervising officer of such State and returned to us with his approval or with such corrections as he deemed essential. We believe that the information given in this condensed form is as correct as it is possible to make it and will be sufficient to indicate to all interested the statutory requirements of the different States and Territories.

INSURANCE IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

The consul for Switzerland reports that twelve English, two German, one French and about ten home companies are in operation in the Argentine Republic. Foreign companies are divided into three classes: Companies of the first class pay $10,000 for the privilege of doing business and deposit $100,000 with the government; those of the second class pay $7000 for license and deposit $70,000; and those of the third pay $5000 and deposit $50,000. A tax of seven per cent on gross receipts is also exacted. Fire premiums on buildings are one and one-half per cent; on goods in warehouse, three-eighth per cent; on goods in bonded warehouse, one and one-half per cent; and on extra hazardous risks, three per cent. For the last few years the fire insurance business has not been quite as good as previously, but by reason of the prevailing style of building and the excellence of the firemen's organization, fire companies are still doing very well.—Neumann's Zeitschrift.

erty; and should the whole insurance at the time of fire exceed the said per cent, a pro rata return of premium on such excess of insurance from the time of the fire to the expiration of this policy shall be made on surrender of the policy.

Also modified to apply wholly to certain specific items of the policy.

DWELLING ABOVE GRADE FLOOR.

FOUR-FIFTHS CO-INSURANCE CLAUSE.

It is a part of the consideration of this policy and a basis upon which the rate of premium is fixed, that the assured shall maintain insurance on the property hereby insured by this policy to the extent of four-fifths of the actual cash value thereof, and that failing so to do the insured shall be a co-insurer to the extent of such deficit, and in that event shall bear his, her or their proportion of any loss.

It is, however, mutually understood and agreed, that in case the total insurance shall exceed four-fifths of the whole cash value of the property insured by this policy, the assured shall not recover from this company more than its pro rata share of four-fifths of the whole actual cash value of such property.

AVERAGE CLAUSE.—DISTRIBUTION FORM.

It is understood and agreed, that the amount insured by this policy shall attach in each of the above-named premises, in that proportion to the whole amount insured that the value of the property covered by this policy, contained in each of said places, shall bear to the value of such property contained in all of above-named premises.

AVERAGE CLAUSE.—CO-INSURANCE PLAN.

It is hereby agreed, in case of loss or damage under this policy, the assured shall recover of this company such proportion of said loss only as the amount hereby assured shall bear to the whole value of property at risk hereunder.

AVERAGE, OR CO-INSURANCE CLAUSE.

N. Y. Standard,

CO-INSURANCE CLAUSE FOR FLOATING POLICY.

It is hereby declared and agreed that in case the property aforesaid in all the buildings, places or limits included in this insurance shall, at the breaking out of any fire or fires, be collectively of greater value than the sum insured, then this company shall pay and make good such a portion only of the loss or damage as the sum insured shall bear to the whole value of the property aforesaid, at the time when such fire or fires shall first happen.

But it is at the same time declared and agreed, that if any specific parcel of goods included in the terms of this policy, or such goods in any specified building or buildings, place or places, within the limits of this insurance, shall at the time of any fire be insured in this or any other office, this policy shall not extend to cover the same, excepting only as far as relates to any excess of value beyond the amount of such specific insurance or insurances, and shall not be liable for any loss, unless the amount of such loss shall exceed the amount of such specific insurance or insurances, which said excess only is declared to be under the protection of this policy and subject to average, as aforesaid.

It being the true intent and meaning of this agreement that this company shall not be liable for any loss unless the amount of such loss shall exceed the amount of the specific insurance or insurances, and then only for such excess, which said excess shall be subject to average, as above.

GASOLINE STOVE PERMIT.

Permission is hereby given to use one gasoline stove in the dwelling insured under this policy, but only upon the conditions and under the restrictions following and in consideration of the observance of the same on the part of the insured, viz.: A supply of gasoline not exceeding five gallons may be kept in a tight and entirely closed metallic can, free from leak but not within twenty-five feet of said dwelling and additions thereto. No stove reservoir to be filled or any gasoline can or package to be opened, or gasoline to be in any manner handled except by daylight, and then not in the same room or room adjoining (having open communication) where or while any fire, blaze or artificial light or flame of any kind is burning.

It is understood and agreed between this company and the insured that in case of loss on property insured under this policy during the time for which the above permit is granted, this company shall not be liable for more than its proportion of two-thirds the actual cash value thereof at the time of the loss, and not exceeding the amount insured, the insured being hereby made a co-insurer thereon to the extent of one-third thereof.

GASOLINE IS DANGEROUS TO LIFE AND PROPERTY.

In consideration of _____ dollars, extra premium, permission is hereby given for the using of a gasoline stove, the reservoir to be filled by daylight only, and when the stove is not in use. Warranted by the insured that no artificial light be permitted in the room when the reservoir is being filled, and no gasoline, except that contained in the reservoir, shall be kept within the building, and not more than five gallons, in a tight and entirely closed metallic can, free from leak, on the premises adjacent thereto.

To be attached to policy No. _____ Insurance Co. Dated this _____ day of _____ 189____ agent at _____ CAUTION.—The danger from gasoline stoves is not so much in themselves as in the having the gasoline about. At ordinary temperature gasoline continually gives off inflammable vapor, and a light some distance from it will ignite it through the medium of this vapor. It is said that one pint of gasoline will impregnate 200 cubic feet of air and make it explosive, and it depends upon the proportion of air and vapor whether it becomes a burning gas or a destructive explosive. Beware of any leaks in cans, and never forget how dangerous a material you are handling. Never attempt to fill the stove reservoir while the stove is burning, or if any other light is in the room. A little carelessness may hazard your life as well as property.

OPTIONAL CHARGES FOR GASOLINE PERMITS.

On policies of $1000 or less, $1 per year.

On policies above $1000, 10 cents per $100.

Term policies: Add at same ratio as for other term insurance, but in no case shall the premium be less than $2 for three years, nor less than $3 for five years.

When more than one stove is used in a dwelling, if by any additional tenant or tenants, multiply the rate for one stove by the number of tenants using stoves.

These rates also apply to buildings of single occupancy used in part for dwellings where a gasoline stove is used for culinary purposes.

Short rates: One month, five-tenths of annual rate.

Two months, six-tenths of annual rate.

Three months, seven-tenths of annual rate.

Four months, eight-tenths of annual rate.

For more than four months, charge the annual rate.

Where gasoline stoves are in mercantile or manufacturing establishments, same form of permit must be required, and an extra charge be made of not less than 25 cents per $100 for each stove in use. The extra charge to apply alike to buildings and contents.

The pipe used for conveying oil to said furnace to be so laid that when not in use the flow of oil, if any, will be away from the premises and back to the storage tank; it being the intention of the parties hereto to provide against the conveying of oil to the place of burning by gravity pressure, or by any other process, from a supply higher than the place of use thereof.

MORTGAGEE CLAUSE WITH FULL CONTRIBUTION.

Loss or damage, if any, under this policy shall be payable to _____ as mortgagee [or trustee] as interest may appear, and this insurance, as to the interest of the mortgagee [or trustee] only therein, shall not be invalidated by any act or neglect of the mortgagor or owner of the within described property, nor by any foreclosure or other proceedings or notice of sale relating to the property, nor by any change in the title or ownership of the property, nor by the occupation of the premises for the purposes more hazardous than are permitted by this policy; provided, that in case the mortgagor or owner shall neglect to pay any premium due under this policy the mortgagee [or trustee] shall, on demand, pay the same.

Provided also, that the mortgagee [or trustee] shall notify this company of any change of ownership or occupancy or increase of hazard which shall come to the knowledge of said mortgagee [or trustee], and, unless permitted by this policy, it shall be noted thereon, and the mortgagee [or trustee] shall, on demand, pay the premium for such increased hazard for the term of the use thereof; otherwise this policy shall be null and void.

This company reserves the right to cancel this policy at any time as provided by its terms, but in such case this policy shall continue in force for the benefit only of the mortgagee [or trustee] for ten days after notice to the mortgagee [or trustee] of such cancellation and shall then cease, and this company shall have the right on like notice to cancel this agreement.

In case of any other insurance upon the within described property this company shall not be liable under this policy for a greater proportion of any loss or damage sustained than the sum hereby insured bears to the whole amount of insurance on said property issued to or held by any party or parties having an insurable interest therein, whether as owner, mortgagee or otherwise.

Whenever this company shall pay the mortgagee [or trustee] any sum for loss or damage under this policy, and shall claim that as to the mortgagor or owner no liability therefor existed, this company shall, to the extent of such payment, be thereupon legally subrogated to all the rights of the party to whom such payment shall be made, under all securities held as collateral to the mortgage debt, or may at its option pay to the mortgagee [or trustee] the whole principal due or to grow due on the mortgage with interest, and shall thereupon receive a full assignment and transfer of the mortgage and of all such other securities, but no subrogation shall impair the right of the mortgagee [or trustee] to recover the full amount of _____ claim.

* The difference between the above mortgagee clause and the one immediately following, it lies in the fourth paragraph of the above, which provides that all the insurance, whether by owner or mortgagee, separately or jointly, shall be taken into account in determining the loss under the policy with the above clause.

N. Y. Standard,

MORTGAGEE CLAUSE.

Loss or damage, if any, under this policy shall be payable to as mortgagee [or trustee] as interest may appear, and this insurance as to the interest of the mortgagee [or trustee] only therein shall not be invalidated by any act or neglect of the mortgagor or owner of the within described property, nor by any foreclosure or other proceedings or notice of sale relating to the property, nor by any change in the title or ownership of the property, nor by the occupation of the premises for purposes more hazardous than are permitted by this policy; provided, that in case the mortgagor or owner shall neglect to pay any premium due under this policy the mortgagee [or trustee] shall on demand pay the same.

Provided also, that the mortgagee [or trustee] shall notify this company of any change of ownership or occupancy or increase of hazard which shall come to the knowledge of said mortgagee [or trustee], and, unless permitted by this policy, it shall be noted thereon and the mortgagee [or trustee] shall, on demand, pay the premium for such increased hazard for the term of the use thereof; otherwise this policy shall be null and void.

This company reserves the right to cancel this policy at any time as provided by its terms, but in such case this policy shall continue in force for the benefit only of the mortgagee [or trustee] for ten days after notice to the mortgagee [or trustee] of such cancellation and shall then cease, and this company shall have the right on like notice to cancel this agreement.

Whenever this company shall pay the mortgagee [or trustee] any sum for loss or damage under this policy, and shall claim that as to the mortgagor or owner no liability therefor existed, this company shall, to the extent of such payment, be thereupon legally subrogated to all the rights of the party to whom such payment shall be made, under all securities held as collateral to the mortgage debt, or may at its option pay to the mortgagee [or trustee] the whole principal due or to grow due on the mortgage with interest, and shall thereupon receive a full assignment and transfer of the mortgage and of all such other securities, but no subrogation shall impair the right of the mortgagee [or trustee] to recover the full amount of claim.

MORTGAGEE CLAUSE.—WHEN OWNER HAS NO INTEREST IN THE INSURANCE.

It is hereby specially understood and agreed that this policy is for the benefit of the mortgagee [or trustee] only, the owner having no interest whatever therein.

And it is further agreed that whenever this company shall pay the mortgagee any sum for loss under this policy this company shall at once be legally subrogated to all the rights of the mortgagee [or trustee] under all the securities held as collateral to the mortgage debt to the extent of such payment, but such subrogation shall not impair the right of the mortgagee [or trustee] to recover the full amount of his claim.

USE AND OCCUPANCY FORM.

The conditions of this contract of insurance are, that if any of the buildings used for manufacturing purposes or machinery therein, shall be so disabled by fire occurring during the term and under the conditions of this policy, that they are entirely prevented from manufacturing, then this company shall be liable at the rate of dollars per day for each working day of such prevention; and in case the said buildings, or machinery therein, are so disabled by fire as to prevent the full daily average product, this company will be liable per day for that proportion of dollars which the product so prevented from being made bears to the average daily yield previous to the fire, which for the purposes of this insurance is agreed to be the full daily average for working days immediately preceding the fire, not exceeding in either case the amount insured. Loss, if any, to be computed from the day of the occurrence of any fire, to the time when the said buildings or machinery therein could with ordinary diligence and dispatch be repaired or rebuilt and machinery be replaced therein, and not limited to the day of expiration named in this policy.

Permission is given to make additions, alterations and repairs; to run machinery extra hours, but not later than 10 o'clock P. M.; to use kerosene oil for lights, to have and make other insurance without notice until requested.

In case of loss, this policy shall attach on the use and occupancy of each mill in proportion as the value of the daily average product of each mill, for the working days immediately preceding the fire shall bear to the value of the daily average product of all the mills for the same time.

LEASEHOLD INTEREST.—TENANT'S FORM.

On leasehold interest (term of rent from to) in the

It is specially understood and agreed, that if said building shall be totally destroyed by fire this company shall pay the whole amount hereby insured, less a deduction of dollars per month for the time that shall have elapsed between the date of and the date of occurrence of said fire. And in case of such damage by fire as shall, without total destruction, render said building untenable, this company shall pay at the rate of dollars per month, to be computed from the date of such fire to the date at which, by due diligence, the said building could be repaired and rendered fit for occupancy; and in no case shall this company be liable for a greater amount than the sum insured; nor for any loss other than that which may arise under said leasehold interest.

RENT POLICY.

§ on the rent of the story and basement roof building, owned by and occupied by tenants, situated

THE CONDITIONS OF THIS INSURANCE ARE: That if these premises, or any part thereof, shall be rendered untenable by fire, so as to cause an actual loss of rents to the assured, then this company shall be liable for such loss of rents, not exceeding the sum insured. And the assured agree to rebuild or repair said premises in as short a time as the nature of the case will admit. Loss to be computed from the date of the fire, and to cease upon the premises again becoming tenable. And in case the assured shall elect not to rebuild or repair, then the loss of rents shall be determined by the time which would have been required for such purpose.

Other insurance permitted without further notice until required.

LEASED GROUND CLAUSE.

It is understood that the building described herein stands on leased ground.

AS NOW OR MAY BE HEREAFTER CONSTITUTED.

The words after the name of the assured are frequently used to render needless any indorsement of transfer of interest when additional members are admitted to the firm, or when a portion of the members withdraw—provided the firm name remains unchanged.

COMPLETION CLAUSE.

Privileged for mechanics to complete said building.

DUPLICATE.

This duplicate is issued with the understanding that it is only a copy of the original, and subject to all endorsements and assignments that may be made on said original, and in case of cancellation thereof this duplicate will immediately become null and void.

If any change in policy is needed be careful to bring original also, to avoid delay.

FLOATING POLICY EXEMPTIONS.

It is understood and agreed that any floating policies held by the assured are not to be considered as contributing insurance in case of loss under this policy.

This clause is entered on specific policies to avoid collision between the two classes of insurance in event of fire. The specific insurance is exhausted before the floating insurance applies.

LOSS PAYABLE CLAUSE.

The Insurance Company of hereby consents that the loss, if any, under this policy after the same shall have been ascertained and duly verified by the assured shall be payable to for and on account of said assured.

After a loss has occurred the claim upon the company is frequently assigned to some debtor to diminish or cancel a debt of the assured, or in some cases the claim is sold by the assured. The above is a form of consent given by the company.

WHARF CLAUSE FOR STORAGE INSURANCE.

This policy also covers on said described merchandise ordered to said store, ex (excepting, however, merchandise insured by marine or [and] inland or transportation policies) while on and on streets or piers and bulkheads and [or] during transit to said store for a period not exceeding ten days from date of this policy.

It is customary where the concession is asked for in New York to grant a ten days' privilege under a storage store policy, covering the merchandise on the wharf or pier of unloading. The object of this clause is to keep track of such pier risks and so prevent double lines there.

RATE CLAUSE.

It is expressly stipulated that in event of loss when other insurance on the property exists at a higher rate of premium than in such case this insurance shall contribute in the proportion which the rate of premium paid for this insurance bears to the highest premium rate paid.

It has often happened that after the occurrence of fire the insurance on the property was at various widely differing rates, and this clause has been devised to equalize the liability so that the number of dollars of premium actually paid determines the amount of loss to the company.

SPECIAL LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

This company is liable under this policy only in case of loss and damage occurring to the property hereby insured, in excess of per cent of the value thereof as determined by careful adjustment, but in no case shall this policy contribute to the payment of such loss or damage with any other policy or insurance not so limited as to liability.

In case such other insurance exceeds at the time of fire such per cent of value of the property insured hereunder this company shall be liable under this policy only for its just proportion of the excess of such loss and damage over and above said other insurance.

It is the special consideration in virtue of which the said assured accepts the above conditions and agrees that the same shall form part of this policy, that a rebate of per cent is deducted from the full premium thereof.

Attached to and forming part of policy No. issued by Ina. Co.

Full premium $ Rebate $ $

The above clause is intended for those establishments where the high rate of hazard, or the large amount of property subject to one fire, prevents the assured from securing full protection. In this case companies may assume lines in an amount above their ordinary limit, with the restriction that the loss must reach a certain proportion of value to render these additional insurances liable. Some companies would prefer the full premium with full liability, others would incline to offer a reduction of rate for the restriction of liability. If such insurance is obtained all the other companies must be advised and an agreement such as the following attached to such of their policies which are without this limitation :

NOTICE OF OTHER INSURANCE UNDER SPECIAL LIMITATION AS TO LIABILITY.

It is understood and agreed that all policies of insurance on the property hereby insured, written under the "Special Limitation of Liability Clause"—that is to say, policies under which by their terms no liability exists for loss and damage unless such loss and damage resulting from any fire shall exceed a stated percentage of the value of the property aforesaid—do not contribute with this policy for the payment of such loss and damage.

FIRE DANGERS OF LARGE AREA BUILDING.

Fire underwriters have been discussing for some time the fire dangers of large area buildings, and the universal schedule lately adopted by underwriters encourages the separation of such areas into smaller spaces. But it can be safely assumed that even if legislation is resorted to, as has been suggested, to prevent the multiplication of buildings with large open interiors, owners of such stores will insist upon the necessity of large areas, and many such buildings will never be separated by party walls, as suggested, to please underwriters and promoters of safe buildings. Owners of large areas will insist that such division is impracticable; but here the importance of the protection offered by automatic sprinklers is strongly commendable, for the service of automatic sprinklers applies equally to large and small areas. In fact the automatic sprinklers have rendered their best services in large mills and mercantile properties. Making stores smaller does not introduce any conditions positively antagonistic to fire, and, on the other hand, sprinkler experts maintain that if a building is properly equipped with sprinklers, protection against the spread of fire is as sure in large structures as in small. This is an important point for underwriters to bear in mind.

STATE TAXES AND FEES.

The laws of some of the States are confused regarding taxes, fees, etc., as in most instances they vary as between life insurance companies and the fire, marine and miscellaneous. Retailatory laws also figure prominently, so that it is extremely difficult to ascertain precisely what fees are charged. The following compilation has been corrected by the insurance officials of the various States, and is believed to be substantially correct :

In several States where biennial sessions are held, the legislatures hold adjourned sessions, by which means the law is evaded and annual sessions held. The Rhode Island legislature meets annually at Newport on the last Tuesday in May, and an adjourned session is required to be held at Providence each year. It is also permitted in several States to prolong the sessions beyond the term named by law.

FIRE INSURANCE BY STATES.

TRANSACTIONS OF THE FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

The following tables show the transactions of the various fire insurance companies in the different States and Territories in 1893. The amounts of risks written and reserved, premium receipts and losses incurred, with the ratio of losses to premiums, are the material points regarding fire insurance that all persons interested in the business are most anxious to compare. The tables present these features in the most condensed form possible. Following the tables of individual States is presented a recapitulation of the entire business of the United States and Canada in 1893, in comparison with transactions of the years 1890 and 1885, giving the totals and the average ratio for the past nine years. The returns were, in a majority of instances, furnished us directly from the offices of the State officers having charge of insurance matters, and are believed to be as nearly correct as it is possible to make them :

* These companies suspended business in Tennessee July 1, 1898, and the above figures are unofficial returns of premiums received first six months of 1898, and of losses incurred for twelve months of 1898. Several companies that retired from State failed to make requested returns. By a careful estimate these companies received in premiums about $100,000.

RECAPITULATION OF FIRE PREMIUMS AND LOSSES BY STATES.

The following tabulation is a comprehensive exhibit of the premiums and losses of the different fire and fire-marine insurance companies operating in the various States and Territories of the United States and the Dominion of Canada. The comparison of the loss experience in the various parts of America in 1885, 1890 and 1893, together with the totals for the past nine years, will be studied with interest by fire underwriters :

THE SPRINGFIELD FIRE AND MARINE.

THE site upon which the present office of the Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance Company stands, in Springfield, Mass., is of historic interest. It was on that spot that William Pynchon, the founder of the town, located his homestead, which afterward was converted into the Old Pynchon Fort and utilized in resisting the assaults of the Indians. The Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance Company was chartered in 1849, and was formally organized April 9, 1851. At first its capital was only $150,000, and the premiums in its initial year of business reached but $38,695. It is a long step from these figures to those indicating its standing to-day. Now the capital is $1,500,000 and its assets over $3,500,000, while its premium income has mounted to over one and three-quarters million dollars. The Springfield Fire and Marine has stood up manfully under severe blows, the company having lost heavily in several conflagrations, notably those at Troy, N. Y., in 1862; at Portland, Me., in 1866; at Chicago in 1871 and at Boston in 1872. In consequence of these four fires the company paid out in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. Since its organization the company has paid cash dividends aggregating $2,954,542, and losses amounting to $20,308,510. The company's present officers are: A. J. Wright, president; Sanford J. Hall, secretary; A. W. Damon, assistant secretary; H. M. Gates, treasurer; Western Department, Chicago, Ill., A. J. Harding, manager; Pacific Coast Department, San Francisco, Cal., A. Dugan, general agent. It has agencies in all prominent localities throughout the United States.

FIRES IN LONDON, ENGLAND.

From the annual report of the chief officer of the Metropolitan Fire Brigade for the year 1892, we extract the following:

The number of calls for fires, or supposed fires, received during the year was 4440. Of these 1043 were false alarms, 260 proved to be only chimney alarms, and 3146 were calls for fires, of which 177 resulted in serious, and 2969 in slight damages. These figures refer to the regular calls for fires, or supposed fires, involving the turning out of firemen, fire engines, fire escapes and horses. They do not include trifling damages by fire, which were not sufficiently important to require the attendance of firemen; neither do they include the ordinary calls for chimneys on fire, which are separately mentioned below. It may be of interest to state that of the 3146 fires, 1318 were extinguished by persons not belonging to the brigade; 677 were extinguished by the use of buckets; 448 by hand pumps; 518 by hydrants and fire plugs; 4 by manual fire engines; 143 by land steam fire engines, and 16 by river steam fire engines; 23 were beaten out with sticks and 3 were the result of explosions. The fires of 1892 compared with those of 1891, show an increase of 254, and compared with the average of the last ten years, an increase of 855. The proportion of serious fires was only about six per cent of the total number. The number of fires in London during the last ten years, and the proportion of serious to slight losses are shown by the following table:

WHAT IS REQUIRED OF COMPANIES DOING BUSINESS IN THE DOMINION.

The several acts passed by the Canadian Parliament relating to insurance in the Dominion were amended and consolidated by a general statute, passed during the session of 1886, which contains all the existing provisions of the regulation and supervision of insurance companies carrying on business in Canada. Under this act no company can do business in the Dominion without obtaining a license from the Minister of Finance, or being registered in the office of the Superintendent of Insurance. In order to obtain such a license every company must deposit with the Receiver General as follows:

Canadian Fire and Inland Marine Companies.....	$50,000	Canadian Inland Marine Companies.....	$50,000
Foreign Fire and Inland Marine Companies.....	100,000	Foreign Inland Marine Companies.....	100,000
Canadian Fire Companies.....	50,000	Life Insurance Companies, both Canadian and Foreign.....	50,000
Foreign Fire Companies.....	100,000

It is provided, however, that in case of any such company incorporated elsewhere than within Canada when its liabilities to policy-holders in Canada, including the full reserve or reinsurance value of all its Canadian policies, exceed its assets in Canada, then the company will be required to make good the deficit by adding to its deposits with the Receiver General, or by creating a special trust in the hands of two or more persons resident in Canada.

Any company incorporated in Canada, and transacting business of life insurance upon the co-operative or assessment plan, may, at the discretion of the Minister of Finance, be exempted from making a deposit with the Receiver General. Such company must register its corporate name in the office of the Superintendent of Insurance and conform to other requirements of the act.

Companies doing ocean marine business exclusively, are not subject to the act.

Companies other than life, fire or marine, in order to do business in Canada are required to obtain a license or permission from the Minister of Finance, and the Treasury Board must in each case decide what shall be the amount of deposit.

Every company is required to file in the office of the Minister of Finance, annually, at the beginning of each year, a sworn statement of its condition and affairs.

The policy liabilities of life insurance companies doing business in Canada are to be valued according to the Table of Mortality of the Institute of Actuaries, H. M., at $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent interest.

Toward defraying the expenses of the office of the Superintendent of Insurance, a sum, which from fire and marine companies must not exceed eight thousand dollars, shall be annually contributed by the companies, which sum shall be assessed pro rata upon the gross premiums received by each during the preceding year, such sum to be paid upon the issue of the annual license.

TOTAL FIRE INSURANCE TRANSACTIONS IN THE UNITED STATES.

RECAPITULATION SHOWING AGGREGATES OF CAPITAL, ASSETS, SURPLUS, INCOME AND DISBURSEMENTS OF ALL JOINT STOCK AND MUTUAL FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANIES GIVEN IN THE PRECEDING TABLES.

In some of the States enumerated in the following recapitulation a falling off in capital and assets is shown. This arises chiefly from the fact that some of the companies will not report their transactions or financial standing. Most of those that neglect to do so are mutuals, although some stock companies are delinquent in this respect. The apparent loss of capital and assets in these States may not be a loss in fact.

FIRE PROTECTION.

A COMPILATION SHOWING THE
WATER SUPPLY AND FIRE APPLIANCES
OF THE
Cities and Villages of the United States.

CORRECTED TO JUNE 20, 1894.

INTRODUCTION TO APPENDIX

FIRE PROTECTION AND WATER SUPPLY.

THE statistics given herewith cover the whole field of water-works systems and fire department equipments of the cities, towns and villages of the United States and Canada, and is the only publication of its kind in existence. The information has been compiled with great care for the present edition and corrected to June 20. Reports have been had from every place named in the work; the statistics as printed last year corrected to date, and many new places not heretofore reported included in the statistics. Circulars were sent to every place having a population of 1000 or more, and wherever a new fire department was reported among the smaller towns, it has been included in this work. The reports will be found fuller than ever, both for fire department equipment and water supply details. This is the fourteenth year of publication of the work, and during all these years it has been the aim of the publishers to improve upon it and to extend the list of places where fire protection and water supply have been put in since the previous publication, and it is now the most perfect statement of the fire protection and water supply of the different cities and towns of the country that has ever been prepared. These reports have already proved invaluable to fire underwriters, manufacturers and others, and it is our purpose to extend and improve them from year to year. The population as given in these reports is taken from the census of 1890.

We desire to extend our thanks to all persons who have aided us in collecting these statistics, either by filling out the blanks sent to them or otherwise contributing to secure accuracy.
